Alexandria, October 16, 1754.

In the Year 1750, I signed a promissory Note, with one John Delaxell, for 500*l.* payable to Miss Anne Watson, a Daughter of one Henry Watson, of Prince George's County. As the Note was given without the least imaginable Consideration, and only for Amusement and Diversion, I gave myself no further Concern about it, supposing the young Lady would cancel it (as she promised to do), until lately it hath been intimated to me, that Mr. Henry Watson still keeps the Note in his Possession, with Intent, as it is imagined, to enforce a Payment thereof, or impose it upon some innocent Person by an Assignment; to avoid which, I have thought it necessary to publish the Manner of passing the Note, and at the same Time to declare, that I will not pay one Farthing of it.
Matthew Steel.
